Contents

Introduction to the Transaction Edition

Preface

PART ONE THE INFLUENCE OF CALAMITIES UPON OUR MIND

I. How Calamities Influence Our Affective and Emotional Life

1 Introductory Remarks

2 The Change in Fanotions and Feelings Induced by Physiological and Psychosocial Starvation

3 Change of Emotions and Affections Induced by Pestilence

4 The Disturbance of Emotional Life by War and Revolution

II. How Calamities Affect our Cognitive Processes, Desires and Volitions

1 First Basic Change

2 Second Basic Change

3 The Modification of Wishes, Desires, and Volition

PART TWO THE INFLUENCE OF CALAMITIES UPON OUR BEHAVIOR AND VITAL PROCESSES

III. How Famine Influences Our Behavior

1 General Uniformity

2 The Change in the Amount of Time Devoted to Food-seeking Activities

3 General Remarks Concerning the Interrelationships of the Various Factors of Behavior

4 The Dominant Role of the Hunger Factor

5 The Social Diversification and Polarization of the Effects of Starvation

IV. How Pestilence, War, and Revolution Influence Our Behavior

1 General Uniformity
2 The Effects of Pestilence
3 The Effects of War
4 The Effects of Revolution
V. How Calamities Influence The Vital Processes—Death, Birth, and Marriage Rates and Social Selection
1 Loss of Life
2 How Calamities Influence Death, Birth, and Marriage Rates
3 Who Survive—the Fit or the Unfit?
PART THREE THE INFLUENCE OF CALAMITIES UPON SOCIAL MOBILITY AND ORGANIZATION
VI. Migration, Mobility, and Disruption of Social Institutions
1 Effects of Calamities upon Migration and Mobility
2 Exodus and Migration in Famines
3 Exodus and Migration during Pestilence
4 Exodus and Migration in War and Revolution
5 Vertical Social Mobility in Calamities
6 Disruption of Social Relationships and Institutions in Calamities
VII. The Influence of Calamities Upon Political, Economic, and Social Organization
1. Calamities and the General Increase of Governmental Control
2. The Specific Increase of Totalitarianism in Response to Sundry Calamities
3. Summary
VIII. The Influence of Calamities Upon the Economic Standard of Living
1 The Lowering of the Standard of Living
2 The Decrease in the Economic Contrasts between the Rich and the Poor
3 Sharp Reallocations of Wealth during Calamities

PART FOUR THE INFLUENCE OF CALAMITIES UPON SOCIOCULTURAL LIFE

IX. Two General Effects of Calamities Upon Sociocultural Life

1 Calamity Molds an Entire Culture in Its Own Image

2 The Diversification and Polarization of the Effects of Calamity upon Society

X. How Calamities Affect the Religious and Ethical Life of Society

1 The Diversity and Polarity of the Effects of Calamity

2 Corroborating Testimony from the Life History of Individuals

3 Corroborating Testimony Based on the Study of Specific, Well-Authenticated Calamities

4 Polarization in Famine, Pestilence, War, and Revolution

5 Demoralization and Unreligiousness in Complex and Prolonged Calamities

XI. Calamities and Ethico-Religious Progress

1 Three Special Cases: the ‘Renaissance, Methodism, the Russian Soviet Revolution

2 Ethico-Religious Regeneration in Times of Profound Crises

3 Summary

XII. Sinners and Saints in Calamity

1 Two Additional Problems

2 Who’s Who among the Sinners and Saints

3 Is the Magnitude of the Polarized Movements Equal in All Calamities?

XIII. The Influence of Calamities Upon Science and Technology

1 The Two Principal Effects

2 The Law of Polarization in the Field of Science and Technology

XIV. Influence of Calamities Upon The Fine Arts

1 Temporary Effects

2 Aesthetic Creativeness in Calamity and Post-calamity Periods

3 General Summary of the Effects of Calamities upon Cultural Creativeness
XV. Dynamics of Ideologies in Calamity
1 Introductory Remarks
2 Impoverishment and Socialist-Communist Ideology
3 Transmutation of Ideologies in War
4 Transformation of Ideologies in Revolution
5 General Conclusion
PART FIVE CAUSES AND REMEDIES OF CALAMITIES
XVI. Causes of Calamities
1 Mutual Association of Calamities
2 Causes of Calamities
XVII. The Way Out of Calamities
1 Rational and “Natural Death” Ways
2 Termination of Famines
3 Termination of Pestilence
4 Termination of Revolution and War
XVIII. A Glance Into The Future
Notes
Index